Collection and Use of Your Personal Data at SCANBOT

What we collect, When, and Why?

SCANBOT Company generally only collects, stores, and uses data that you provide during your login or registration when using SCANBOT Services, and when using paid services, if applicable.

Whenever a user visits the SCANBOT Portal or downloads a file/data, the following access information, from which identity cannot be derived, is stored in our server log: internet protocol, address / IP address, the page from which the file was requested, date, time, browser type and operating system, amount of data transferred, access status (file transferred, file not found, etc.). Statistics are generated from this data, with the help of which SCANBOT Company adapts the offered Services to your needs.

When fulfilling a concluded service agreement, especially when using your chosen paid services, it may be necessary to enter additional data, such as full name and email address, and for company information – company address and bank account number for invoicing purposes.

Even when processing your inquiries or providing customer services, we sometimes need your personal data (for example, name, email address, and phone number). SCANBOT Company handles this data confidentially and in accordance with legal provisions on personal data protection in accordance with European Union Regulation No. 2016/679, the general regulation on personal data processing. SCANBOT Company will not transfer this information to third parties without your consent, with the exception of cases where the data is necessary for the performance of the contract, processing your inquiries, or providing customer services.

Details on the transfer of data to third parties can be found in the CONSENT TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING form.

For the reasons mentioned above, SCANBOT Company reserves the right to store IP addresses and log files for a reasonable period, according to applicable regulations, after a visit to the Scanbot Portal, in order to monitor compliance with the terms of use of the services. This procedure primarily serves to prevent possible misuse, to clarify such cases, and exceptionally to transfer data to investigative bodies for clarification purposes.

SCANBOT Company may, at its own discretion or at your request, supplement, correct, or delete incomplete, incorrect, and/or outdated personal data that it has stored in connection with the operation of the Scanbot Portal. Within the framework of legal provisions, SCANBOT Company deletes personal data immediately at the request of the authorized person, unless there is a legal obligation to retain this data.

CONSENT TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

In accordance with the provisions of Act No. 101/2000 Coll., on the Protection of Personal Data, I hereby agree that SCANBOT s.r.o., náměstí I. P. Pavlova 1789/5, 120 00 Prague 2, Czech Republic (hereinafter referred to as "SCANBOT") may process my provided personal data for the purpose of inclusion in SCANBOT's customer database and for sending or contacting me via electronic means and sending commercial communications via electronic means, all pursuant to Act No. 480/2004 Coll., on certain information society services, and further for evaluating customer requirements (hereinafter referred to as the "purpose"), all for an indefinite period (until revoked).

From May 25, 2018, instead of Act No. 101/2000 Coll., we will be governed by European Union Regulation No. 2016/679, the General Data Protection Regulation, when processing your personal data.

I hereby acknowledge that SCANBOT Company is the data controller within the meaning of the aforementioned laws.

I have been informed that I have the right to withdraw my consent to the processing of personal data by written request delivered to the registered office of SCANBOT Company. The withdrawal of consent is effective upon its delivery.

I declare that I have provided the data to SCANBOT Company voluntarily, and that I have been informed, in accordance with the aforementioned laws as amended, about the processing of personal data and about the rights and obligations associated therewith, as well as that I further have rights pursuant to Sections 12 and 21 of Act No. 101/2000 Coll., i.e., primarily the right to access information about the processing of data concerning me, and the right to correct, block, or request their destruction, as well as the right to compensation for any damage in accordance with relevant legal regulations.

I further agree that the provided personal data may be provided to third parties, especially entities with whom SCANBOT Company cooperates for the fulfillment of contractual obligations and business partners.

I also have the right to contact the organizer or directly the Office for Personal Data Protection, at the address Plk. Sochora 27, Prague 7, PSC 170 00 in case of suspicion of infringement of my rights.

From May 25, 2018, instead of Act No. 101/2000 Coll., we will be governed by European Union Regulation No. 2016/679, the General Data Protection Regulation, when processing your personal data.
